

THE TRUSTEES of WHITMAN COLLEGE

PROUDLY ANNOUNCE THE

INSTALLATION

of

GEORGE S. BRIDGES

AS WHITMAN'S THIRTEENTH PRESIDENT

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2005

AT CORDINER HALL

The installation of George S. Bridges celebrates the college's strong academic heritage and its commitment to undergraduate learning that:

- Fosters knowledge essential for leadership,
- Encourages intellectual vitality, confidence and flexibility needed to succeed in a complex, changing world,
- Promotes a rich appreciation for diversity, and
- Imparts opportunity.

The installation events will highlight the college's long-standing tradition of education that is personal, supportive and focused on understanding and solving some of the world's greatest challenges.
