

Article III. Powers of the Faculty

- a. The Faculty shall have power to arrange the courses of study, and to take proper measures for the government and discipline of the students, and to suspend and expel offenders as may be deemed necessary. The foregoing authority may be delegated to a properly constituted committee, the Faculty reserving the right of review. (Const., Art. V, Sec. 2.)
- b. All members of the faculty, whether on appointment with continuous tenure or not, are expected to adhere to the standards expressed in the 1987 Statement on Professional Ethics, as adopted by the American Association of University Professors. Moreover, all members of the faculty, whether on appointment with continuous tenure or not, are entitled to academic freedom as set forth in the 1940 Statement of Principles on Academic Freedom and Tenure and additions and amendments thereto formulated by the American Association of University Professors.
- c. The Faculty shall make such rules for its own organization and government as it shall deem proper, except as elsewhere provided. (Const., Art. V, Sec. 3.)
- d. These rules may be amended at any regular meeting of the Faculty. Every amendment shall specify the Chapter, Article, Section, and Paragraph of this Codification which is to be amended.
- e. Only those Faculty members who are eligible to vote (see Article I, Composition of the Faculty) may serve on committees that are elected by the Faculty.
- f. Any Faculty member may invite to the campus any speaker. The appearance of any invited speaker does not imply any endorsement, either implicit or explicit, of his or her own views by the Institution, its Faculty, its Administration, or its Governing Boards.
