

Article VI. Recording and Reporting Student Conduct

Section 1. Freedom of Expression

Expressions by students of opinions in the classroom or in academic work connected with courses which reflect social or political viewpoints shall be considered as confidential and shall not be divulged to any investigating agency or person.

Section 2. Official Conduct Records

Records of official actions related to the conduct and discipline of students shall be maintained by the Dean of Students. Inquiries relating to such conduct actions shall be directed to that office.

Section 3. Notations of Suspension or Dismissal

Notations of suspension or dismissal for reason of conduct shall be made on the student's permanent academic record.

- a. On completion of the terms of suspension, the notation on the student's permanent record shall be expunged, and thereafter no further indication of the action shall appear on such record.
- b. Notations concerning dismissal shall not be expunged from the permanent record.

Updated June 29, 2007 Sally Hooker with Lee Thompson.