

Comprehensive Sites

About.com Internships - Internships and application tips, both in the US and abroad.

About.com Jobs - Job listings, job boards, job sites, local part-time jobs and full-time jobs, jobs listed by career field, and other resources to help find a job.

Accessible Employment - AccessibleEmployment.org is a national job board dedicated to including disabled employees in today's workforce. The site is dedicated to closing the gap between employers searching for qualified workers and disabled candidates searching for employment.

All Diversity - AllDiversity.com celebrates the differences among employees in regards to age, race, gender, physical and mental ability and sexual orientation. It works to connect job seekers and employers with easy-to-use tools, providing one of the most efficient mediums for job search in an increasingly competitive job market.

All Star Jobs.com - All Star Jobs is directory of recruiters, job banks, employers, career specific job boards, resume and career resources. It includes over 30,000 links to job-related resources.

America's Job Bank - Job and internships listings, information about salaries and training programs, and other resources to help find a position.

The Black Collegian Online - The Black Collegian Online contains information on career development, self-development, and job opportunities. You'll also find information on study abroad programs, health and fitness, graduate/professionals schools, internships/co-ops, and other important information designed to ensure a smooth transition from college to a successful career. There is also an online Career Center and Job Bank that offers free, practical tools for searching and applying for jobs with employers who are interested in recruiting a diverse workforce.

Business Week Career Reports - Business Week conducted a survey of career services directors at U.S. colleges to learn which employers were tops on their list. They then asked those employers to complete a survey on their hiring, pay, benefits, and training programs, which they compared with others in the same industry. Finally, they obtained from Universum Communications, a Philadelphia research company, the results of its 2008 survey of more than 40,000 U.S. undergraduates, who were asked to identify their five most desirable employers. The website provides the findings from the survey and analyzes the best places to launch a career based on information from 2008.

Career.com - Career.com is a search tool that identifies companies that fit the job search terms in various locations across the United States.

Career Bank - CareerBank specializes in Finance, Banking, Mortgage, Insurance, and Accounting jobs. They provide resources for online job posting and job search, resume upload and resume database search, and career advice services. Powered by the leading network of over 70 niche job boards, you can view the most relevant job openings and find the job that is right for you.

Career Builder - Career Builder uses technology, data-analysis, a comprehensive partner network and superior customer service to match the right people with the right jobs. It provides a job search, resume-building resources, a salary calculator, career tests, and a variety of other resources.

Career Rookie - CareerRookie.com is a division of CareerBuilder-whose online career site, is the largest in the U.S. with 23 million unique visitors. CareerRookie.com connects students and recent graduates seeking internships, part-time jobs and entry-level positions with the nation's top employers. Users can also post resumes, get the latest news on companies and industries, sign up for automatic job alerts, view local career fairs and tap into advice on everything from writing resumes to on-the-job success - all from an entry-level point of view.

Career Exposure - The Career Exposure Network is a privately held e-recruiting network of premier niche sites that has been helping Fortune 1000 employers find top quality Women, Diversity and MBA candidates since 1996. It markets its niche services directly to businesses committed to building a diverse work environment.

Career Jet - Careerjet is a job search engine designed to make the process of finding a job on the internet easier for the user. It maps the huge selection of job offerings available on the internet in one extensive database by referencing job listings originating from company websites, recruitment agency websites and large specialist recruitment sites. The job offerings themselves are not hosted by Careerjet and users are always redirected to the original job listing. Careerjet's job search engine network encompasses over 50 countries, featuring separate interfaces that are translated into 20 languages.

Career Magazine - CareerMag.com posts the latest job entries from coast to coast. They also offer a variety of career resources to foster professional growth. They also have services designed to increase users' exposure to top employers and articles to help users prepare for the next phase of your career.

Career One Stop - Career One Stop provides information about obtaining jobs; job exploration tools including a job search; self assessments; salary information; career training and education resources; and resume, cover letter, and interview tools.

Careers.org - Careers.org offers detailed information about over 1000 occupations, including wages, skills required, and links to colleges offering such training. They also provide career, job and educational resources for most cities in the United States, Canadian Provinces and many other countries; detailed coverage of most colleges and universities in the United States-including academic programs and expenses; and an extensive directory of web resources selected by human editors on hundreds of topics.

College Grad - College Grad is the #1 internet job search service for college students and recent grads. It targets college students and recent grads exclusively, and provides information on resumes, cover letters, and interviews.

College Job Bank - College Job Bank allows you to post and distribute your resume, search for jobs, gain information about continuing your education, browse career articles and blogs, and use the free salary calculator.

College Recruiter - CollegeRecruiter.com is the leading job board for college students searching for internships and recent graduates hunting for entry-level jobs and other career opportunities. Many of the job posting ads are for internships, seasonal jobs, and entry-level career opportunities.

Craigslist - Craigslist allows users to browse job listings in a variety of careers all over the world.

Employment Guide - Tons of internship and job listings, plus a comprehensive listing of job fairs across the nation. The video center features job profiles from workers in different professions.

Flip Dog - FlipDog is a great place to find jobs and advance your career. Whether you're looking for a new job or researching employment opportunities, FlipDog allows you to quickly search and find the information you need most. And since FlipDog is powered by Monster you'll have access to the largest database of jobs and the most helpful career development tools.

GettingHired.com - The GettingHired internet based portal connects job seekers with disabilities, committed employers, advocacy organizations, and service providers. GettingHired offers individuals a platform to connect with each other and career mentors. Job seekers will find opportunities posted by employers who expressly use the portal through paid annual subscriptions to hire them. The portal identifies and highlights individual skills, talents and backgrounds, and the RightMatch technology matches individual qualifications to specific job requirements facilitating employment success.

Help Wanted - Search this free jobs database by category or city, or take a look at "hot" and "favorite" jobs.

Honor Roll Online.com - Honor Roll Online provides students and graduates of America's best small schools direct access to some of the world's top companies and industry leaders. These companies offer career opportunities and internships to viable candidates from your school. Use password 1636 to enroll.

Hoovers Online - Hoovers provides a great network for finding business-related jobs and internships, as well as expert advice about a number of professional industries.

Hound - Rated as one of PC Magazine's Top 20 Best Job Search Sites, Hound locates and classifies jobs on employer websites and provides its highly specialized research to job seekers, recruiters and other job sites throughout North America.

Indeed - "One search, all jobs," promises Indeed.com, which pulls together job listings from all over the internet into one easy searchable database. Over 800,000 jobs added in the last week!

Inside Jobs - Discover new career opportunities and paths to get there on this website.

The Intern Queen - A site to search for internships across the United States.

Internships4You - Internships4You works with college career centers around the globe to compile pertinent and comprehensive information about open internship positions. The site focuses on working with small businesses where interns will benefit from more one-on-one interaction. Internships4You also offers its own internship program for students interested in programming, graphic design, and marketing.

InternshipPrograms.com - Internship Programs provides an extensive job board of internships that is searchable by employer, location, field, and date of posting.

JamminJobs - In addition to tips and advice, JamminJobs provides industry specific career channels with a wealth of information tailored to your career goals. Select a career channel to research industry information, search jobs and build your portfolio.

Jobalot - Simple job search, and extensive job listings. Jobalot is committed to providing employment seekers a fast and easy way to find jobs from reputable companies in their specific career field. From part time jobs to full time careers, Jobalot has something for everyone.

Job Finder Advisory - This site offers all sorts of useful advice: career choice tips, job interview tips, resume writing tips, free job search ideas, and more.

Job Monkey - Job Monkey boasts "the coolest jobs on Earth," along with a searchable database, travel information center, and other tools.

Job Seeker's Bookmarks - Provides a variety of links to useful sites for information about jobs and job search.

Job Source Network - A collection of links to useful job search websites, which can be filtered by category of interest.

Job Web - A service of the National Association of Colleges and Employers, JobWeb offers career and job-search advice for new college graduates.

Juju - Juju.com is a job search engine, not a job board. Juju's comprehensive search results link to millions of jobs found on thousands employer career portals, recruiter websites, job boards, and other employment sites all over the Internet.

Linked In - Crazy about Facebook or Twitter? LinkedIn takes social networking into the professional world. Create a profile, find past and present colleagues and classmates, and discover inside job connections. A great way to network online.

Lycos - Classified ads for all major US cities will help you find a job or internship in any location.

Monster - Monster allows users to search for job opportunities browse career descriptions, use resume-building tools and advice, gain job-search strategies and advice on interviewing and other career-related topics, and develop a personal profile.

MonsterCollege - MonsterCollege is the top job network for college students and recent grads. Learn about jobs and get interview tips from experts, network with your fellow entry-level job seekers, and share job resources, advice, and stories.

MyJobHunter - This service searches all the top career sites at once, finds all new jobs matching your criteria, applies with your resume to new matching jobs, personalizes your cover letter for each job application, reports a history of jobs you've applied to.

Myspace Jobs - Join for free, create a job profile, and sift through a variety of online job listings from all over the country.

National Employment Bulletins - COSTS $$ TO REGISTER! Once you register, you'll gain access to jobs in the following categories: Liberal Arts, International, Writing/Editing/Communications, Art, Management & Business, Performing Arts, and Education.

nemnet.com - nemnet, The National Employment Minority Network, established in 1994, is a national resource organization committed to assisting schools and organizations in the identification and recruitment of minority students and professionals. nemnet works with over 350 public and private schools [k-12], colleges and universities and non-profit organizations and in turn, assists thousands of minority students and professionals in their search for professional development and employment.

Online Recruiters Directory - Find recruiting companies in your field, and browse various other job resources.

Riley Guide - The Riley Guide connects you to over 50 pages with job resources, starting with the more general resources and moving through location or audience specific listings to the occupation and industry resources.

Rising Star Internships - Search for internships by subject, and also explore links to a whole variety of career resources.

SEO - Sponsors for Educational Opportunity (SEO) London is a not-for-profit organization that every year provides hundreds of undergraduate students from under-represented ethnic minority backgrounds the unique opportunity to gain summer internships at the most prestigious investment banks and corporate law firms in the UK. SEO London also provides students with extensive training, mentoring and networking with experienced professionals throughout the industry.

Simply Hired - A collection of jobs that pulls together links from all over the web. Get new jobs delivered to your inbox daily, explore salaries with the salary tool, create a profile, and personalize your search. Also available in a variety of countries if you're interested in overseas jobs.

Spherion - Committed to recruiting and staffing excellence, Spherion provides integrated staffing solutions to meet the evolving needs and priorities of companies and job candidates. The company offers temporary, temp-to-perm and permanent jobs - both full-time and part-time. Register for free to gain access.

True Careers - Browse career resources, read industry news, post your resume online, and search jobs organized by location, category, and function.

Vault Internship Database - Explore top internship rankings, company and industry profiles, and blogs and forums with feedback from current employees.

Wall Street Journal's Career Journal - In addition to a comprehensive job search engine, the Wall St. Journal's Careers site offers insight into office life, career strategies, graduate programs, and other news and trends.

WetFeet.com - WetFeet breaks jobs down into Undergrad, MBA, and Experienced Hire categories. The Undergrad section offers useful information on internships, finding that first after-college job, writing a cover letter and resume, and negotiating a salary. Plus, research salary information, top employers, industry information, and search for jobs.

Work Place Diversity - WorkplaceDiversity.com has an extensive database of employment opportunities across all sectors nationwide. The site provides a forum for diverse candidates to connect with employers who seek them. Easy-to-use tools provide an efficient avenue for proactive job search.

Yahoo! hotjobs - Use the power of the Yahoo! search engine to find jobs all over the world. Post your resume, research careers at featured companies, compare salaries and get career advice.