

Environment and Wildlife

Alaska Conservation Foundation - ACF works to ensure that Alaska's environment retains its beauty and viability for generations to come. ACF has an internship program specifically targeted toward students and recent graduates who plan a career path in conservation.

Alaska Parks - Alaska State Parks offers a volunteer program in which interns and volunteers can gain experience managing and maintaining State Parks. Positions include: archaeological assistant, backcountry ranger assistant, naturalist for school programs, etc.

American Forests - American Forests is a world leader in planting trees for environmental restoration, a pioneer in the science and practice of urban forestry, and a primary communicator of the benefits of trees and forests. Jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities are available with American Forests.

American Zoo and Aquarium Association - Those interested in working with animals can search for a variety of job and internship openings in zoos, amusement parks, aquariums, museums, etc. around the world.

Atlantic Center for the Environment - The Quebec-Labrador Foundation: Atlantic Center for the Environment offers fellowships, exchanges, and leadership development for conservation leaders to focus on global challenges and provide dynamic and thoughtful leadership for the future.

Bigelow Laboratory for Ocean Sciences - Bigelow Laboratory for Ocean Sciences conducts research on topics ranging from microbial oceanography at the molecular level to global ocean processes.

Blue Ocean Society - Blue Ocean Society for Marine Conservation is a Portsmouth, NH-based non-profit organization that promotes awareness and conservation of the marine environment through education and research in New England. Interns work one-on-one with research scientists/educators aboard different whale watch boats and other locations.

Campus Climate Challenge - Opportunities for young people to work to stop global warming and build a just and sustainable future.

The Chesapeake Bay Foundation - The Chesapeake Bay Foundation works to inform and engage the public to demand that the tough political decisions and adequate public and private investments are made to save the Bay. Current openings and internships are posted on the CBF's website.

Cool Works - Cool Works provides an extensive list of internships and jobs available at state parks, resorts, national parks, camps, ranches, and other locations across the world.

Cross Creek National Wildlife Refuge - Cross Creeks National Wildlife Refuge, was established in 1962 for the primary purpose of providing feeding and resting habitat for migrating waterfowl in the Tennessee-Kentucky portion of the Mississippi flyway. Volunteer and internship positions are available for anyone interested in furthering this mission.

Cyber Sierra - With Cyber Sierra, jobseekers who are interested in natural resource occupations, ecology and environmental disciplines can browse listings of companies that provide a number of jobs in these areas. Also provided are a variety of employment tools to help jobseekers and people who are transitioning between careers or school and a career.

Earth, Environmental, and Water Sciences - This website is a database of other websites that have job boards or extensive information about working in the environmental field.

Earthworks - Earthworks allows you to post a resume or browse job listings in oil, energy, mining, geoscience, seismology, earth science, environmental science, engineering, remediation, agriculture, forestry, ecology, meteorology, atmospheric science, oceanography, marine science, and a number of other related subjects.

EcoEmploy: Environmental Jobs and Careers - EcoEmploy provides environmental and government job postings, an employer website directory searchable by location and/or name, resume tips, career information for students, and more.

EH&S Careers - EHS Careers is dedicated to providing jobseekers with the most relevant, current and comprehensive list of environmental, health, and safety jobs on the internet.

EnviroDirectory Mid Atlantic & EnviroDirectory New England - For people interested in working with the environment in the New England, Great Lakes, and Mid Atlantic area, EnviroDirectory offers a job search engine searchable by region, category, and/or company name.

EnviroNetwork - EnviroNetwork aims to connect young people to both short-term environmental learning experiences and long-term environmental careers by providing job listings and networking opportunities.

The Environment Directory - With thousands of sites, The Environment Directory is the largest exclusively environmental organization directory on the Web and includes sites from over 100 countries.

Environmental Career Center - The Environmental Career Center first launched it's online job board in 1995 under the label

EnviroLink - The EnviroLink Network is a non-profit organization that provides access to thousands of online environmental resources.

Environmental Career.com - password: mistletoe - EnvironmentalCareer.com has the nation's largest environmental database with 34,000 resumes and over 60,000 unique visitors to their web site per month. ECC assists individuals and employers alike, in matching top candidates with today's top green employers.

Environmental Jobs and Careers - Environmental Jobs and Careers links to environmental opportunities in the USA and Canada. Employment includes careers such as environmental engineers, nature and wetlands scientists, GIS, technicians, chemists, earth sciences / geologists, policy and law, wildlife conservation, planning, education, wastewater treatment and operations, program and project management, natural resources, etc.

Environmental Protection Agency - The "careers" section of the EPA's website allows users to search job listings, apply for a job online, and gain more information about working with the EPA.

Green America \(Co-Op America\) - Green America is a nonprofit, membership organization whose mission is to harness economic power - the strength of consumers, investors, businesses, and the marketplace - to create a socially just and environmentally sustainable society. For those interested in working in the environmental field, Green America offers a number of internships and volunteer positions.

Green Careers Guide - The time to change your life for the better is NOW, Green Careers Guide is here to help. The world is transforming. Why not join the fastest growing job arena in the world? Green career employment is expected to be a $1.5 Trillion Industry.

Green Careers Journal - The Green Careers Journal was created to provide individuals, current professionals, students, university colleges, departments and career offices with a publication that contains current green job listings and information, as well as articles and insight on the environmental careers world and the growing green economy.

Green Corps - The one-year Green Corps program intersperses intensive classroom instruction with multiple campaign efforts. Trainees gain hands-on experience running field campaigns to win environmental protections and public health initiatives. At the end of the training, the Green Corps program facilitates trainees' placement in permanent positions with leading environmental and social change groups.

GreenBiz.com - GreenBiz.com's green jobs and career center has a job database listing careers in solar and renewable energy, cleantech, green building, sustainable businesses and socially responsible organizations, and more. The database is searchable by region, experience level, and/or category.

Global Portal for Environmental Jobs and Resumes - This website connects jobseekers interested in the environment with jobs throughout the world that specialize in environmental management, green tourism, conservation, renewable energy, pollution, and recycling.

Inform Inc. - INFORM prides itself on more than three decades of identifying innovative technologies, practices and products that provide practical solutions to complex environmental and health-related problems. Internships and volunteer opportunities are offered through this internship in chemical policy, information technology, communications, and more.

Island of Shoals - Island of Shoals is a steamboat company that works with the Blue Ocean Society - a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting awareness and conservation of our marine environment.

Macon County Conservation District, IL - The Macon County Conservation District's purpose is to preserve and maintain wild lands, open spaces and other natural or scenic resources within Macon County. Jobs and internships are available periodically in camp counseling, environmental education, and related fields.

National Association of Environmental Professionals \(NAEP\) - NAEP is a resource for structured career development from student memberships to certification as an environmental professional, a multi-disciplinary association for professionals dedicated to the advancement of the environmental professions, and a network of professional contacts and exchange of information among colleagues in industry, government, academia, and the private sector.

National Environmental Directory - The National Environmental Directory is a directory of more than 12,000 organizations in the United States concerned with environmental issues and environmental education.

National Environmental Health Association \(NEHA\) - NEHA provides online job listings and networking opportunities throughout the United States.

National Recreation and Park Association \(NRPA\) - NRPA Career Center is the premier electronic recruitment resource for the National Park and Recreation industry. Here, employers and recruiters can access the most qualified talent pool with relevant work experience to fulfill staffing needs.

National Wildlife Foundation Job Page - The National Wildlife Federation is the nation's largest member-supported conservation organization. NWF offers full-time and part-time jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities.

National Wildlife Visitor Center - The Visitor Center is designed to provide visitors with knowledge and appreciation of the role of wildlife research in preserving the earth's vital resources. The Visitor Center offers internships in environmental education and wildlife management.

Ohio EPA - The Ohio Environmental Protection Agency is a state agency whose goal is to protect the environment and public health by ensuring compliance with environmental laws. Jobs are offered in a variety of fields including architecture, business, education, nursing, etc.

Orion Grassroots Network - NRPA Career Center is the premier electronic recruitment resource for the National Park and Recreation industry. Here, employers and recruiters can access the most qualified talent pool with relevant work experience to fulfill staffing needs.

Pollution Online - Pollution Online provides industry specific career channels with a wealth of information tailored to your career goals. You may select a career channel to research industry information, search jobs and build your portfolio.

Raptor Center- The Raptor Center specializes in the medical care, rehabilitation, and conservation of eagles, hawks, owls, and falcons. Internships are available for those interested in environmental education and caring for raptors as well as jobs in the veterinary sciences.

Rocky Mountain Institute - Rocky Mountain Institute is an independent, entrepreneurial nonprofit that drives the efficient and restorative use of resources. Jobseekers can browse job openings on RMI's career webpage.

SeaWorld Adventure Parks - If you are interested in working with SeaWorld, Busch Gardens, or Discovery Cove, this website offers information regarding marine mammal careers, SeaWorld's Veterinary Student Externship, Adventure Camp internships, and many other opportunities.

SIERRA Club: Cool Jobs for a Warming Planet - This website profiles 5 jobs that center around environmental work and provides resources for further information for people interested in investigating green careers.

Society of Wetlands Scientists Job Board - Wetland-related job and graduate school opportunities are listed on the SWS Jobs Board website

State Public Interest Research Group \(PIRG\) - For more than 35 years, U.S.PIRG advocates have stood up to powerful special interests on some of the United States' most pressing problems. U.S. PIRG is hiring entry-level and experienced staff throughout the country.

Student Conservation Association - Tens of thousands of green professionals, from park superintendents to urban planners, can trace their start to SCA. SCA is where college and high school students connect with nature, render hands-on service, gain new skills and perspectives, and launch a lifetime of stewardship.

SustainableBusiness.com - Sustainable Business offers a number of services including a job search service that connects people with business skills with environmentally conscious companies, daily sustainable business and investor news, networking services, and a resource directory.

Texas A&M Wildlife and Fisheries Job Board - This job board lists career opportunities around the United States for those interested in working with wildlife and the environment.

US EPA - The mission of EPA is to protect human health and to safeguard the natural environment. In addition to listing job opportunities at the EPA, the EPA's website also provides information about internship opportunities, student and graduate programs, and environmental career programs.

USDA Forest Service - The Forest Service was established in 1905 and is an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The Forest Service manages public lands in national forests and grasslands, which encompass 193 million acres.

U.S. Geological Survey Earth Sciences Internship Program Opportunities to participate in research in the earth sciences. Disciplines: biology, chemistry, civil and environmental engineering, computer sciences, environmental sciences, geology, geography, hydrology, forestry.

Washington State Department of Ecology - The Department of Ecology employs approximately 1,400 full-time workers and 200 temporary workers in locations across the state. If you are interested in solving problems and helping protect the state's environment their website lists job openings offered throughout Washington State.

Water Environment Federation - The Water Environment Federation is a not-for-profit association that provides technical education and training for thousands of water quality professionals who clean water and return it safely to the environment.

Water Jobs Now - Water Jobs now provides up-to-date listings for jobs in water and wastewater treatment, government and water resource jobs, engineering and management jobs, and occupations in consumer, commercial and industrial water products and services.

Wolf Hollow Wildlife Rehab Center- Wolf Hollow is a non-profit organization located on San Juan Island in N. W. Washington State whose mission is to promote the well-being of wildlife and their habitats through rehabilitation of injured and orphaned wildlife, public education and non-invasive research. Internships, volunteers opportunities, and jobs are available through Wolf Hollow Wildlife Rehab Center.

Wolf Ridge Student Naturalist Training Program- Wolf Ridge offers an environmental education and naturalist training program that provides hands-on, student-centered experiences and prepares environmental education leaders. Summer jobs are also available for camp counselors, science teachers, summer naturalists, trip leaders, and more.

www.ofertia.com/empleos-sostenibles/jobs- The new job platform with hundreds of opportunities for internships or full time positions for students and young professionals. Our website is updated daily with dozens of new jobs in the environmental sector from around the world (Europe, Asia and South America). Our young team has created Sustainable Jobs this year, declared by the United Nations as the "International Year of Sustainable Energy for All" year. Our goal is to answer the increasing demand for this kind of jobs as well as to contribute to the expansion of environmentally oriented jobs.