

Government and Public Service

AmeriCorps - AmeriCorps is a national network of programs that engages more than 70,000 Americans each year in intensive service to meet critical needs in communities throughout the nation. AmeriCorps offers several ways to get involved, from part-time local service programs to full-time residential programs. Members receive guidance and training so they can make a contribution that suits their talents, interests, and availability.

Careers in Intelligence - The Intelligence Community (IC) offers employment in a variety of areas, including Analysis, Science and Technology, Information Technology, Intelligence Collection, Language, Security, and Acquisitions and Finance Management. They also offer a variety of opportunities for current students.

Carter Center - The Carter Center offers internships in Atlanta for students and recent graduates to work directly in their field of study, gaining valuable knowledge that can enhance their professional development.

Center for Disease Control - The CDC provides employment opportunities for those interested in understanding and preventing disease. Some of the most common jobs at CDC include Behavioral Scientists, Biologists, Epidemiologists, Public Health Advisors, and more.

Congressional - Executive Commission on China - The Congressional-Executive Commission on China (CECC) monitors human rights and the development of the rule of law in China, and submits an annual report to the President and the Congress. The CECC offers full-time paid internships for fall, spring, and summer terms.

Congressional Research Service - The Congressional Research Service (CRS) works exclusively for the United States Congress, providing policy and legal analysis to committees and Members of both the House and Senate, regardless of party affiliation. The Library of Congress offers many permanent and temporary opportunities, including internships and fellowships, for employment, all easily accessible through their website.

Everett Public Service Internship Program - Program indefinitely suspended. Site still provides a search engine for other Internship Programs.

Federal Jobs Digest - The Federal Jobs Digest site lists over 40,000 federal jobs, searchable by either location or occupation.

FedWorld Information Network - The official site of US government jobs, USA Jobs is a one-stop source for Federal jobs and employment information. Create an account, be informed, and look for a job.

Federal Internship Directory - This directory provides information on many fellowships and internships available during the school year as well as the summer.

Federal Reserve - As the central bank of the United States, the Federal Reserve's mission is to provide the nation with a safer, more flexible, and more stable monetary and financial system. There are many job opportunities available at the Federal Reserve, including full time research and professional positions, internships, and cooperative education programs. The Cooperative Education Program provides paid and unpaid professional work experience to undergraduate and graduate students in economics, finance and accounting.

Government Information Exchange - Have a question about Federal programs, benefits, or services? The National Contact Center handles millions of inquiries from citizens trying to find answers to their questions about federal programs, benefits, and services. This site will help you navigate the government maze on your way to employment.

The Hill - The Hill is the newspaper for and about the US Congress, breaking stories from Capitol Hill, K Street and The White House.

Idealist.org - Idealist is an interactive site where people and organizations can exchange resources and ideas, and locate opportunities and supporters.

J.W. Saxe Fund for Public Service - A program which awards funds to one or two students to gain practical experience in public service by taking a no-pay or low-pay job or internship during a summer or other term.

Northwest Institute for Social Change Media Making Change - Each summer, the Northwest Institute for Social Change hosts an academic program that educates and inspires undergraduate students how the media and arts can bring about progressive social change.

Opportunities in Public Affairs - This site is the comprehensive source on Capitol Hill, Public Relations, and Public Affairs jobs in the Washington, D.C. area. There's an entire section dedicated to entry-level jobs. We report on jobs across the U.S.

that require a college degree and up to 1 year of experience. We specialize in career fields where entry-level positions can be difficult to find, including public relations, advertising, publishing, print & broadcast journalism, law, research, government affairs and public policy. Partnership For Public Service - The Partnership for Public Service is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that works to revitalize the federal government by inspiring a new generation to serve, and by transforming the way government works. The Partnership also works directly with federal agencies to increase their capacity to recruit and retain the nation's top talent.

Political Resources - Political Resources Online provides tools for candidate, issue, and corporate campaigns, as well as listings of political job openings.

Roll Call - Since 1955, Roll Call's mission has been to deliver superior coverage of the people, politics, process and policy on Capitol Hill. Roll Call's Jobs page lists current openings in all sorts of political fields. State and Local Government Pages - The State and Local Government Internet directory provides convenient one-stop access to the websites of thousands of state agencies and city and county governments.

State Public Interest Research Group \(PIRG\) - For more than 35 years, U.S.PIRG advocates have stood up to powerful special interests on some of the United States' most pressing problems. U.S. PIRG is hiring entry-level and experienced staff throughout the country.

Student Jobs – Student Jobs is the one-stop portal for a range of employment opportunities for students within the Federal Government.

USA Jobs - The official site of US government jobs, USA Jobs is a one-stop source for Federal jobs and employment information. Create an account, be informed, and look for a job.

USDA Forest Service - The Forest Service manages public lands in national forests and grasslands, which encompass 193 million acres. The Forest Service offers a variety of jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities.

US Department of Interior - The U.S. Department of the Interior protects America's natural resources and heritage, honors our cultures and tribal communities, and supplies the energy to power our future. Search current vacancies and internships through the DOIJobs site.

US Department of Justice - Voted one of the "Best Places to Work in the Federal Government" in 2009, The Department of Justice leads the nation in ensuring the protection of all Americans while preserving their constitutional freedoms. Department of Justice agencies post job announcements directly to USAJobs.gov - the one-stop source for Federal jobs and employment opportunities sponsored by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management.

US Department of Labor - The Department of Labor fosters and promotes the welfare of the job seekers, wage earners, and retirees. Apply for open positions and track your application online.

US Department of State - The Department of State's Bureau of Human Resources handles recruitment, assignment evaluation, promotion, career development, and programs for the Department's Foreign and Civil Service employees. Gather information, and search for jobs at the DOS.

US House of Representatives - This site includes application instructions for vacancies in the House of Representatives staff.

US Senate - The Senate's Placement Office assists Senators and Senate Committees with filling entry-level through professional staff vacancies by providing resumes of qualified candidates. Learn more about these positions, internships, fellowships, and the application process.

The Washington Center - The Washington Center for Internships and Academic Seminars is an organization serving hundreds of colleges and universities by providing students challenging opportunities to work and learn in Washington, D.C. for academic credit.

Washington State Department of Personnel - The Washington State Department of Personnel is the central human resource agency for state government.

Washington State Department of Transportation - The WSDOT Apprenticeship Program provides students and recent graduates interested in the field of engineering the opportunity to gain on-the-job training and real-world work experience. Apprentices will get hands-on training, performed under the guidance of a skilled a professional or technical engineer, allowing them to also have one-on-one interaction.

Washington State Legislative Internship Program - The Washington State Legislature offers full-time internship positions

each Legislative session for college and university students. The majority of these positions are undergraduate policy internships, where students work in Olympia as staff for members of the House of Representatives or Senate.

White House Internship Program -The White House Internship Program provides a unique opportunity to gain valuable professional experience and build leadership skills. This hands-on program is designed to mentor and cultivate today's young leaders, strengthen their understanding of the Executive Office and prepare them for future public service opportunities.

Women's Foreign Policy Group - The Women's Foreign Policy Group is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit, educational membership organization which promotes global engagement and the leadership, visibility and participation of women in international affairs. Our members are mid and senior-level international relations professionals whose positions exemplify the myriad opportunities for international careers - from White House advisors to the State Department, NGOs to Wall Street, the World Bank to foreign diplomats.