

XVII. SMOKING POLICY (Effective December 8, 2005)

It is the policy of Whitman College that students, faculty, staff, and visitors to the campus are entitled to live, study, and work in areas that are free of tobacco smoke. In accordance with this policy and Washington State law, smoking is prohibited inside any building on the Whitman College campus and is prohibited within 25 feet of any entrance, exit, window, or ventilation intake of any Whitman college campus building.
