Primary Sources:

Old English Poetry
“The Dream of the Rood”
“The Wife’s Lament”
“The Battle of Maldon”
[All three can be found in The Broadview Anthology of British Literature: The Medieval Period, 2nd or 3rd edition]

Anglo-Norman Poetry
Marie de France, “Lanval”
[in The Broadview Anthology of British Literature: The Medieval Period, 2nd or 3rd edition]

Middle English Poetry and Prose
“Farewell this world, I take my leve forever”
[in The Broadview Anthology of British Literature: The Medieval Period, 2nd or 3rd edition]
Patience

Chaucer
“The Clerk’s Tale,” in The Canterbury Tales
[Larry Benson, ed. The Riverside Chaucer, 1987 or Jill Mann, ed. Penguin Classics, 2005]

Malory
“Sir Lancelot and Queen Guinevere” in Le Morte Darthur
[Helen Cooper, ed. Oxford World Classics, 1998.]
The Wedding of Sir Gawain and Dame Ragnelle

Secondary Sources:

 With the exception of the Gawain text, available online, all editions are on reserve at Penrose Library. ***