Academic Overload Form
(to be turned in at the beginning of the semester during the Add/Drop period)

WID: __________________ Name: ___________________________________________________

Courses to Add (e.g., PSYC-110-B): ____________________________________________

To register for an academic overload (19-21 academic credits), students must meet all the requirements stated below and complete this form. Once the form is completed, submit it in person to the Registrar’s Office.

By signing this form, you authorize the information listed here to be viewed by all appropriate individuals. If you do not authorize the release of this information, an alternative form is available in the Registrar’s Office.

Student’s Signature: __________________________________________________________

Adviser’s Signature: __________________________________________________________

***************************************************************************************************

Requirements:

1. Students must have both a cumulative and most recently completed semesters’ GPA of at least 3.50 for classes taken at Whitman.
2. Students must have their adviser sign above indicating approval of the overload request.
3. Students must obtain signatures from ALL of their professors from the most recently completed semester at Whitman.

If you do not meet all the requirements, you must complete the reverse side to petition the Board of Review for an Academic Overload.

Note to the instructor: By signing this form, you are confirming that as of the 9th week of the semester, the student consistently met course requirements and deadlines and therefore qualifies for enrollment in 19 - 21 academic credits for the current term. Also, please check the “Agree” or “Disagree” column.
