

Soo-Young Kim

Curriculum Vitae

Maxey Hall 133, Whitman College, 345 Boyer Avenue, Walla Walla, WA 99362 | 509-527-5908

Appointment	Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, Whitman College Under the auspices of the Consortium for Faculty Diversity	2017 -
Education	Ph.D. Department of Anthropology, Columbia University Dissertation: A Future Continuously Present: Everyday Economics in Greece	2017
	M.A. Department of Anthropology, The New School for Social Research	2009
	B.A. summa cum laude , Department of Classics, Harvard University Thesis: The Pragmatics of Transition in Pindar's Epinician Odes: A Performance-Minded Approach	2006
Selected Fellowships, Grants, and Awards	Mellon/ACLS Dissertation Completion Fellowship	2016
	Onassis Foundation Postgraduate Research Scholarship	2014
	Wenner-Gren Foundation Dissertation Fieldwork Grant	2013
	Fulbright Foundation/IIE Research Grant	2013
	Mellon Travel Fellowship, Columbia University [declined]	2013
	Council for European Studies Pre-Dissertation Fellowship	2012
	Dean's Fellowship, The New School for Social Research	2007
	Thomas Temple Hoopes Prize, Harvard University	2006
Publications	The Future Forecasted: Economic Projections at Work in Memorandum Greece. [Article under review at Cultural Anthropology .]
	A Future in Arrears. In In the Mouth of the Wolf, Die Wolf, Die! Pp. 18-23. Athens: Futura Publications. 2014.
	An Ethnography of Greek Futures. In Perspectives on Europe 43(2): 59-62. 2013.
	Review of Hansen and Stepputat (eds.), Sovereign Bodies: Citizens, Migrants, and States in the Postcolonial World . In Transforming Anthropology 19(1): 80-81. 2011.
Papers and Presentations	"Of Pensions and Projections: How the Future Constitutes the Economy in Greece." Paper presented at the workshop Historicizing "the Economy" , Harvard University, September 24, 2016.
	"An Avalanche of Spreadsheets, Models, and Forecasts: The Future in Greece." Paper presented at the Sheldon Scheps Workshop Series, Columbia University, April 29, 2016.

"Elefsis: Deep Past and Near Future." Remarks at screening of Stefanos Tsivopoulos's film Eleusis, Modern Greek Seminar, University Seminar Series, Columbia University, March 23, 2016.

"Once Ensured, Now Insured: How Pensions Figure Futures." Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association. Denver, CO, November 19, 2015.

"Economics, Expertise, and the Everyday: Making a Future in Greece." Paper presented at the International Conference of Europeanists. Washington, DC, March 14, 2014.

"An Inventory of Futures." Lecture delivered at the 4th Athens Biennial-AGORA. Athens, Greece, November 9, 2013.

"Coming of Age in Austerity." Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association. San Francisco, CA, November 14, 2012.

"Clouds in the Forecast: The Future, Climate Science, and Humanitarian Aid". Paper presented at the Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association. Montreal, Canada, November 18, 2011.

Teaching Development	Teaching Fellow, Columbia University	2011-2017
	Led weekly discussion sections and occasional review sessions, delivered lectures, designed assignments, graded papers and exams, and advised students as a teaching assistant in the courses Interpretation of Culture; The Productivity of Crisis; Language, Performance, Power; A History of the Greek Present; Africa and the Anthropologist; Culture through Film and Media; and Film and Culture .
	Innovative Teaching Summer Institute Certification, Columbia University	2016
	Developed a semester-long research assignment for implementation in an undergraduate anthropology course. Gained hands-on experience with teaching tools including collaborative digital annotation platforms and course design pedagogies.
	Core Preceptorship, Columbia University [declined]	2016
	Appointed to teach the Core Curriculum course for 2nd-year undergraduates, Contemporary Civilization .
	Teaching Scholar, Columbia University	2016
	Designed and developed a new undergraduate seminar course: Theories, Histories, and Ethnographies of the Future [course cancelled due to enrollment].
	Lead Teaching Fellow, Columbia University	2015-2016
	Organized and led pedagogy workshops in the Anthropology Department, participated in training at the Center for Teaching and Learning, served as liaison between the Department and the CTL.
Service and Organization	Rapporteur for University Seminar Series "Modern Greek." Columbia University, 2016-2017.
	Conference Monitor at Wenner-Gren Symposium "Anthropology of Corruption." Sintra, Portugal, September 9-15, 2016.

Co-organizer of workshop series "Farther Afield: Anthropology Beyond Academia," featuring anthropologists working in non-academic settings. Columbia University, February-April 2016.

Co-organizer and co-chair of panel "Risky Business: Ethnographies of Insurance." Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association, Denver, CO, November 19, 2015.

Co-organizer of panel "Kinship in Crisis." Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association, San Francisco, CA, November 14, 2012.

Co-organizer and co-moderator of conference "Scaling the Ethnographic." The New School for Social Research, April 10, 2009.

Research and Teaching Interests Economy, future, expertise, lay economic practices, epistemic objects, Greece, Europe, EU

Languages	Ancient Greek	proficient (reading)
	French	intermediate (listening, reading, speaking, writing)
	Greek	advanced (listening, reading, speaking, writing)
	Korean	heritage language, basic (listening, reading, speaking, writing)
	Latin	proficient (reading)

References Available upon request