The endowment shall be invested in accordance with Chapter 24.55 RCW (Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act) and in a manner which maintains inter-generational equity, providing on-going support for current programs and operations while protecting the purchasing power of the endowment from inflation and excess spending. The endowment shall be invested for the long term; its time horizon is in perpetuity. The Investment Committee shall oversee the investment of the endowment utilizing prudent diversification across asset categories, investment styles, capitalization ranges and geographies with the goal to insulate its performance from volatility and to mitigate risk with regard to its concentration policy.

No student or former student shall be entitled to receive a transcript of credits from the College until all financial obligations to the College have been settled in full, provided that this requirement may be waived by the President or the Chief Financial Officer as long as the indebtedness does not exceed the amount of tuition and fees for one academic semester and/or as may be required by law.

Article IV
Calendar

Section 1. The fiscal year of the College shall end on the 30th day of June unless a different date shall be set by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. The President’s Advisory Board shall meet according to a schedule established from time to time by the President.

Section 3. There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees in Walla Walla, Washington in the spring of each year.

Section 4. Regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held in months and on days determined in advance by action of the Board Chair in consultation with the President. There shall not be fewer than three meetings per year.

Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be held at any time and place on the call of the Chair of the Board, the President of the College, or of at least three Trustees.

Notice of each meeting shall be given by electronic transmission, mail, or personal delivery (including telephone) to each Trustee by the Secretary or officer or Trustees calling the same at least two days before such meeting, but the validity of any action of the Board at any regular meeting shall not be affected by failure to give such notice. Notice delivered by electronic transmission or personal delivery shall be effective upon receipt. Notice delivered by mail or commercial delivery service shall be deemed received on the date shown on the return receipt, if available, or otherwise five calendar days after its deposit in the mail or commercial delivery service. Any business may be transacted at any meeting, whether specified in the notice or not.

A Trustee is deemed to have revoked consent to receive electronic transmission if the person sending electronic notice has been unable to transmit by electronic transmission two (2) consecutive notices given to the Trustee’s electronic address, and this inability becomes known to the person responsible for giving the notice. The inadvertent failure by the person responsible for sending notice to treat such inability as a revocation of consent does not invalidate any meeting or other action.

The Board of Trustees or members of Board Committees may participate in a meeting of the Board, or any Board Committee, by means of a conference telephone, video conferencing system, or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can simultaneously understand one another. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.
Attendance or participation of a Trustee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where the Trustee attends a meeting for the purpose of objecting promptly at the beginning of the meeting or upon arrival to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Any action required or permitted by the Charters, Constitution or Bylaws, or by the laws of the State of Washington, to be taken at a meeting of the Board, or a Board Committee, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is executed by all of the Trustees entitled to vote with respect to the action. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote, and may be described as such.
