Reforming diversity, inclusivity and support for all in the Whitman community is central to our identity. We are committed to creating an environment that reflects the diversity of our students, faculty and staff, and that promotes student engagement and equity. Recognizing that diversity comes in many forms, we are working to create an inclusive environment that celebrates and embraces the unique perspectives and experiences of all individuals. We strive to create an environment that is welcoming, respectful and inclusive for all students, regardless of their background.

The Intercultural Center is dedicated to creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for all students. We promote diversity and inclusion by providing opportunities to explore and understand different cultures, perspectives and experiences. We support organizations and initiatives that promote diversity and inclusion, and we work to create a safe and supportive environment for all students.
