COVID-19 Testing at the Welty Student Health Center

Recently, Cole was invited by the Museum of Contemporary Art in Chicago to curate an exhibit, titled “Go Down Moses,” after the well-known spiritual song. The exhibit explores themes of freedom, suffering, the environment and the future—and marks Cole’s major curatorial debut.

The exhibit features an array of works by women and African American photographers, including Teju Cole’s new series “The Humans,” his latest collection of fine art photographs. Cole has combined his eye for beauty with his capacity to perceive human and civic truth.

Semi-Annual Stationery Order Period Open

Whitman’s online stationery ordering is open and will remain open through Feb. 15. For delivery on Mar. 1, we’ll remind you this is a once-yearly opportunity to personalize your stationery, so if you’ll need letterhead, envelopes, or other stationary items before the fall semester, this is the time to order.

Your portal login is not the same as your Whitman login credentials and it’s not automatic. If you have ordered in the past, your login remains the same. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact Communications Printing and Mailing Services Manager Chistal Fuller at 509-831-5057 or chistal.fuller@whitman.edu.

Whitman Bookstore Open for In-Person Shopping

The Whitman Bookstore is open Monday-Thursday from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Saturday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Stop by and get yourself a warm Whitman sweatshirt or other great gear.
