Pres. Murray Open Office Hours for Students during a regularly scheduled surveillance testing period. In order to have campus access reinstated, a COVID-19 test must be completed.

Anyone without access cannot attend or teach in-person or hybrid classes or work in on-campus offices. Student-athletes whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

To have campus access reinstated, a COVID-19 test must be completed.

Faculty and staff: no building access

On-campus students: the GAC and the Health Center

Off-campus students: limited access to Cleveland and the Health Center

Social Media Takeover: Past, Present & Future with the Student Engagement Center (SEC) and InterCultural Center.

Throughout the new wave of the Black Lives Matter Movement, issues of race, culture and discrimination have moved to the forefront of mainstream media. Offering his own story and experience, join the well renowned playwright & artist, Jeremy O. Harris, for a special lecture and QA session about his journey throughout the American theater.

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

Q: What happens if someone misses a required COVID-19 test?
A: Student-athletes whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

For more information on the status of the COVID-19 testing program, visit on-campus or contact the Health Center.

For information on any available testing options in-person or hybrid classes or work in on-campus offices, Student-athletes, whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

In order to have campus access reinstated, a COVID-19 test must be completed.

Campus badge and swipe card building access is limited as follows:

Submissions are welcome! If you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, email whitmantoday@whitman.edu. Submissions is noon for the following day's newsletter, though submissions may be held for a later date according to space and editorial needs.

Black History Month

Announcements

Semi-Annual Stationary Order Period

Print your resumes, letters of application or other stationary items that you need 6 to 12 months before the fall semester. The online stationery portal allows you to get back ordering, and you will need Whitman login credentials and Whitman's annual art and literary magazine, is now accepting submissions of art, prose, poetry and digital art. Submissions are reviewed anonymously and selected works will be published in print and online.

Friday, Feb. 2 from 12 to 1 p.m.

Power & Privilege Symposium

Facebook

Call for Submissions: Blue Moon Submissions Deadline Coming Soon

Blue Moon Submissions:

The full Information and instructions can be found at whitman.edu/blue-moon. Submissions include poetry, fiction, nonfiction, art, photography and mixed media. Submissions are reviewed anonymously and selected works will be published online and in Blue Moon 2021.

Thursday, Feb. 4 at 6:30 p.m.

Blue Moon Submissions: Writing a Poem

Call for Submissions: Blue Moon Submissions Deadline Coming Soon

Friday, Feb. 5 at 12 to 1 p.m.

InterCultural Center:

Social Media Takeover: Past, Present & Future with the Student Engagement Center (SEC) and InterCultural Center.

Friday, Feb. 12, 12–1 p.m.

Theatre Reimagined: Race, Culture & Radical Voice

Facebook

Friday, Feb. 18

American theatre.

Throughout the new wave of the Black Lives Matter Movement, issues of race, culture and discrimination have moved to the forefront of mainstream media. Offering his own story and experience, join the well renowned playwright & artist, Jeremy O. Harris, for a special lecture and QA session about his journey throughout the American theater.

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

Q: What happens if someone misses a required COVID-19 test?
A: Student-athletes whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

For more information on the status of the COVID-19 testing program, visit on-campus or contact the Health Center.

For information on any available testing options in-person or hybrid classes or work in on-campus offices, Student-athletes, whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

In order to have campus access reinstated, a COVID-19 test must be completed.

Campus badge and swipe card building access is limited as follows:

Submissions are welcome! If you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, email whitmantoday@whitman.edu. Submissions is noon for the following day's newsletter, though submissions may be held for a later date according to space and editorial needs.

Black History Month

Announcements

Semi-Annual Stationary Order Period

Print your resumes, letters of application or other stationary items that you need 6 to 12 months before the fall semester. The online stationery portal allows you to get back ordering, and you will need Whitman login credentials and Whitman's annual art and literary magazine, is now accepting submissions of art, prose, poetry and digital art. Submissions are reviewed anonymously and selected works will be published in print and online.

Friday, Feb. 2 from 12 to 1 p.m.

Power & Privilege Symposium

Facebook

Call for Submissions: Blue Moon Submissions Deadline Coming Soon

Blue Moon Submissions:

The full Information and instructions can be found at whitman.edu/blue-moon. Submissions include poetry, fiction, nonfiction, art, photography and mixed media. Submissions are reviewed anonymously and selected works will be published online and in Blue Moon 2021.

Thursday, Feb. 4 at 6:30 p.m.

Blue Moon Submissions: Writing a Poem

Call for Submissions: Blue Moon Submissions Deadline Coming Soon

Friday, Feb. 5 at 12 to 1 p.m.

Theatre Reimagined: Race, Culture & Radical Voice

Facebook

Friday, Feb. 12, 12–1 p.m.

American theatre.

Throughout the new wave of the Black Lives Matter Movement, issues of race, culture and discrimination have moved to the forefront of mainstream media. Offering his own story and experience, join the well renowned playwright & artist, Jeremy O. Harris, for a special lecture and QA session about his journey throughout the American theater.

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

Q: What happens if someone misses a required COVID-19 test?
A: Student-athletes whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

For more information on the status of the COVID-19 testing program, visit on-campus or contact the Health Center.

For information on any available testing options in-person or hybrid classes or work in on-campus offices, Student-athletes, whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

In order to have campus access reinstated, a COVID-19 test must be completed.

Campus badge and swipe card building access is limited as follows:

Submissions are welcome! If you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, email whitmantoday@whitman.edu. Submissions is noon for the following day's newsletter, though submissions may be held for a later date according to space and editorial needs.

Black History Month

Announcements

Semi-Annual Stationary Order Period

Print your resumes, letters of application or other stationary items that you need 6 to 12 months before the fall semester. The online stationery portal allows you to get back ordering, and you will need Whitman login credentials and Whitman's annual art and literary magazine, is now accepting submissions of art, prose, poetry and digital art. Submissions are reviewed anonymously and selected works will be published online and in Blue Moon 2021.

Friday, Feb. 2 from 12 to 1 p.m.

Power & Privilege Symposium

Facebook

Call for Submissions: Blue Moon Submissions Deadline Coming Soon

Blue Moon Submissions:

The full Information and instructions can be found at whitman.edu/blue-moon. Submissions include poetry, fiction, nonfiction, art, photography and mixed media. Submissions are reviewed anonymously and selected works will be published online and in Blue Moon 2021.

Thursday, Feb. 4 at 6:30 p.m.

Blue Moon Submissions: Writing a Poem

Call for Submissions: Blue Moon Submissions Deadline Coming Soon

Friday, Feb. 5 at 12 to 1 p.m.

Theatre Reimagined: Race, Culture & Radical Voice

Facebook

Friday, Feb. 12, 12–1 p.m.

American theatre.

Throughout the new wave of the Black Lives Matter Movement, issues of race, culture and discrimination have moved to the forefront of mainstream media. Offering his own story and experience, join the well renowned playwright & artist, Jeremy O. Harris, for a special lecture and QA session about his journey throughout the American theater.

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

On-campus students: no building access

Cleveland: the GAC and the Health Center

Student-athletes: limited access, no board access

Q: What happens if someone misses a required COVID-19 test?
A: Student-athletes whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

For more information on the status of the COVID-19 testing program, visit on-campus or contact the Health Center.

For information on any available testing options in-person or hybrid classes or work in on-campus offices, Student-athletes, whose campus access is suspended are also forbidden to practice or compete with their teams.

In order to have campus access reinstated, a COVID-19 test must be completed.

Campus badge and swipe card building access is limited as follows:

Submissions are welcome! If you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, email whitmantoday@whitman.edu. Submissions is noon for the following day's newsletter, though submissions may be held for a later date according to space and editorial needs.