Day 1 of campus-wide COVID-19 testing is in the books! Yesterday 331 faculty and staff completed their first COVID tests at Cordiner Hall. The process went quite smoothly, we believe we can accommodate students who are already in town during today's testing slots. If you are an employee or a student already in town, please prepare yourself to finish your test in time to come back and be fully tested.

For Tuesday's campus-wide COVID-19 testing:

- Day 1 of campus-wide COVID-19 testing

We would strongly encourage any off-campus students to test as early as possible so we are expecting the longest lines and wait time happening over the weekend.

As a reminder, here are the testing schedules for the remainder of the week for on-campus testing:

Monday, January 11, 2021
- Morning: 8 a.m.-2 p.m.
- Afternoon: 2 p.m.-4 p.m.

Tuesday, January 12, 2021
