Submissions are welcome! If you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, please submit it to Whitman Today. This newsletter is produced by the Office of Communications and is emailed Monday-Friday to Whitman College students, faculty, and staff. All times are listed in Pacific Standard Time.

---

Important Reminders for the Semester

Welcome, and welcome back! I'm so glad to have you here with us, knowing that you've all had your own unique experiences over the past year and a half. Whether you're a first-year student living on campus or an upperclassman living off campus, we're all in this together, and we're all relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

Here are some important reminders:

1. Whether you are living on or off campus, you are in week one of a two-week quarantine. This means some important things: you must stay in your room and practice physical distancing six feet from others at all times, except when you are in your room or when you are in a supervised, outdoor Quarantination activity; and you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing while on campus.

2. When you are in your home or residence hall, you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing.

3. If you are feeling sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please stay home and report it to the appropriate authorities.

Following these rules is the only way we are going to have a successful, safe semester. We're all in this together and relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

---

Whitman Today

Spring Orientation webpage

Visit the Spring Orientation webpage to review all the details for your week-long Orientation experience.

Q&A Session with the Student Academic Advisors

Join the Student Academic Advisors for a Q&A session to learn more about the resources and tools available to help you succeed at Whitman College.

Quarantination Photo Contest

Show us a slice of your Whittie life during quarantine for a chance to win some Whitman swag. Creativity is welcome! You can submit your photos throughout the contest on the Whitman College Instagram so make sure you stay connected that way and follow the hashtags #wcphotocontest and #whittie_in_quarantine. Winners should send their submissions to photocontest@whitman.edu.

---

Important reminders for the semester

1. Whether you are living on or off campus, you are in week one of a two-week quarantine. This means some important things: you must stay in your room and practice physical distancing six feet from others at all times, except when you are in your room or when you are in a supervised, outdoor Quarantination activity; and you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing while on campus.

2. When you are in your home or residence hall, you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing.

3. If you are feeling sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please stay home and report it to the appropriate authorities.

Following these rules is the only way we are going to have a successful, safe semester. We're all in this together and relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

---

Whitman Today

Publisher

Whitman Today is produced by the Office of Communications and is emailed Monday-Friday to Whitman College students, faculty, and staff. All times are listed in Pacific Standard Time.

---

Important Reminders for the Semester

Welcome, and welcome back! I'm so glad to have you here with us, knowing that you've all had your own unique experiences over the past year and a half. Whether you're a first-year student living on campus or an upperclassman living off campus, we're all in this together, and we're all relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

Here are some important reminders:

1. Whether you are living on or off campus, you are in week one of a two-week quarantine. This means some important things: you must stay in your room and practice physical distancing six feet from others at all times, except when you are in your room or when you are in a supervised, outdoor Quarantination activity; and you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing while on campus.

2. When you are in your home or residence hall, you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing.

3. If you are feeling sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please stay home and report it to the appropriate authorities.

Following these rules is the only way we are going to have a successful, safe semester. We're all in this together and relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

---

Whitman Today

Publisher

Whitman Today is produced by the Office of Communications and is emailed Monday-Friday to Whitman College students, faculty, and staff. All times are listed in Pacific Standard Time.

---

Important Reminders for the Semester

Welcome, and welcome back! I'm so glad to have you here with us, knowing that you've all had your own unique experiences over the past year and a half. Whether you're a first-year student living on campus or an upperclassman living off campus, we're all in this together, and we're all relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

Here are some important reminders:

1. Whether you are living on or off campus, you are in week one of a two-week quarantine. This means some important things: you must stay in your room and practice physical distancing six feet from others at all times, except when you are in your room or when you are in a supervised, outdoor Quarantination activity; and you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing while on campus.

2. When you are in your home or residence hall, you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing.

3. If you are feeling sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please stay home and report it to the appropriate authorities.

Following these rules is the only way we are going to have a successful, safe semester. We're all in this together and relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

---

Whitman Today

Publisher

Whitman Today is produced by the Office of Communications and is emailed Monday-Friday to Whitman College students, faculty, and staff. All times are listed in Pacific Standard Time.

---

Important Reminders for the Semester

Welcome, and welcome back! I'm so glad to have you here with us, knowing that you've all had your own unique experiences over the past year and a half. Whether you're a first-year student living on campus or an upperclassman living off campus, we're all in this together, and we're all relying on each other to keep everyone safe.

Here are some important reminders:

1. Whether you are living on or off campus, you are in week one of a two-week quarantine. This means some important things: you must stay in your room and practice physical distancing six feet from others at all times, except when you are in your room or when you are in a supervised, outdoor Quarantination activity; and you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing while on campus.

2. When you are in your home or residence hall, you must wear a mask and practice physical distancing.

3. If you are feeling sick or have been exposed to someone who is sick, please stay home and report it to the appropriate authorities.

Following these rules is the only way we are going to have a successful, safe semester. We're all in this together and relying on each other to keep everyone safe.