The weekend provides some extra time to give a little attention to the things that nourish us. If you’re looking for something good to eat, Chef Jon Sodini’s chicken teriyaki may be just the thing! Visit Whitman’s Cafe Bon Appetit website for instructional videos and culinary inspiration.

Announcements

Whitman Student Consulting Corps: Apply Now

Are you interested in consulting with Walla Walla nonprofits this upcoming spring semester? Applications are now live on Handshake for sophomores, juniors and seniors to apply. Find more information on the Whitman Student Consulting Corps cohort. Application deadline is Nov. 25. To learn more about the job, or for any questions, contact Shelly Rasmussen or send an email to studentconsulting@whitman.edu.

Benedictine Library has two ways to get you the items that you need:

1. If you are in Walla Walla, you can request materials through Sherlock using the “Request for pickup” link, wait for an email notification, and pick them up at the library’s front entrance. See more details here.

2. Not in Walla Walla? Find the items you need in Sherlock, sign in and use the “Remote Mail Delivery” link located next to the item. Fill out the mail delivery request form (make sure your address is current) and we will ship items to you in 2-8 business days. You will receive an email notification with a tracking number when your items ship. If you don’t need an entire text, use the Request Chapter in PDF option in Sherlock to request a scan. Questions? Contact Jen Pope.

New COVID-19 Website

The Walla Walla County Department of Health unveiled a new COVID-19 website this week. With information on symptoms, details on local testing options and other resources, the site provides important information on staying safe and stopping COVID-19 from spreading in our community.

Happening Today and Tomorrow

Today

In-person: Introduction to Social Media: What You Need to Know

This semester, an earlier key point course on social media is being offered for the first time in the Psychology department. This course will cover the basics of social media usage, including how to create and maintain a professional presence online, as well as strategies for effective communication in a virtual environment.

TOMORROW

Online: Academic Majors Fair

Learn about majors from student representatives, get advice on classes and get to know other students interested in the same tracks. Drop by for however long you want and get your questions about different majors answered!

More Upcoming Events

Have a virtual event you’d like to share with campus? Email the details to whitmantoday@whitman.edu.

Question of the Week: Answer Edition

This week we asked: Would you rather never have to work again or never have to sleep again (you won’t feel tired or suffer negative health effects)? No need for sleep would definitely give you a lot more hours to live life, but then again permanent retirement sounds pretty good too – and that’s what the majority of question responders chose.

“Whitman Today” is produced by the Office of Communications and is emailed Monday-Friday to Whitman College staff, faculty and students. All times are listed in Pacific Daylight Time. Submissions are welcome if you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, an event to publicize or other content to share with the Whitman College community. Email whitmantoday@whitman.edu. Submissions should be 125 words or less. The deadline for submissions is noon the previous day’s newsletter. Though submissions may be held for a later date according to space and editorial needs.