What We Do: Enterprise Technology

The Virtual Moment Work Intensive is a time for our community to reflect on the past months of challenges and the future of our work. An intensive virtual event is being planned to provide a space for reflection and collaboration. The project committee is inviting everyone to consider the following:

- What are the best things about working remotely?
- What are the challenges and obstacles we face?
- What are our hopes for the future?

We are looking for suggestions and ideas that can help us improve our remote work environment. Please share your thoughts and ideas with us. We are eager to hear from you!
