Submissions are welcome! If you have a professional or personal accomplishment to celebrate, an submission is noon for the following day's newsletter, though submissions may be held for a later gift to what's most meaningful to you, including:

Fund offers donors more choices to support today's students. You can designate a newly created Whitman Fund. Formerly known as the Annual Fund, the Whitman Check out the All In for Whitman giving site to see some familiar alumni and All In for Whitman is today, Tuesday Oct. 6. For the first time, gifts can go to the academic theme:

There are two events this week offered as part of the Race, Violence, and Health & Sumach Community Garden, and Vegan cooking, gardening at the Rees

What are you most passionate about? catalyze progress. Learn more through initiatives at Whitman. Much of our work over the last year has been available at the Welty Student Health Center today, tomorrow and Thursday 2:30 p.m. PSAC meets monthly to develop a direction for an increased commitment to sustainability and serve as the focus/expertise:

If you are a student living outside Walla Walla, flu shots are generally paid for by the between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. and no appointment is necessary.

It and COVID-19 share many of the same symptoms, and this year more important than ever it is important that we do all we can to keep ourselves, our households and our community safe and healthy. It is our expectation that all students will

The flu and COVID-19 share many of the same symptoms, and this year more than ever it is important that we do all we can to keep ourselves, our households and our community safe and healthy. It is our expectation that all students will

The Buddy Program connects Whitman students and alumni in meaningful ways. This spring, they have carried out fun events like bowling or arts and crafts, and this developmentally disabled adults in Walla Walla to build friendships. In past years, the Buddy Program has included events like bowling, arts and crafts, and this Fall, they would love to try new methods of connecting! The Buddy Program connects Whitman students with intellectually or developmentally disabled adults in Walla Walla to build friendships. In past years, the Buddy Program has included events like bowling, arts and crafts, and this Fall, they would love to try new methods of connecting!

The Buddy Program connects Whitman students and alumni in meaningful ways. This spring, they have carried out fun events like bowling or arts and crafts, and this Fall, they would love to try new methods of connecting! The Buddy Program connects Whitman students with intellectually or developmentally disabled adults in Walla Walla to build friendships. In past years, the Buddy Program has included events like bowling, arts and crafts, and this Fall, they would love to try new methods of connecting!

Are you interested in advancing environmental, social and economic sustainability at Whitman? Please join the President's Sustainability Advisory Committee. Interested in interdisciplinary studies? Thursday, Oct. 8 at 7 p.m.