First Years: Sign Up for Career Coaching Starts This Month

Many first-year students and their parents know that now is the time to begin planning a career. If you haven’t signed up yet, or even considered it, now is the time to think about what you might like to do as you explore different majors, skills, and experiences.

Career Coach Kirsty Hiatt is ready to share resources and information to assist students as they explore, discover and dive in to programs and experiences that can help shape their future. If you’re a first-year student, check your email for your personal invitation and find a coaching session that works for you.

COVID-19 Case on Campus

In accordance with Washington state Labor & Industries employer requirements, we are notifying the campus community about the contact tracing process as a close contact (within 6 ft. for at least 15 minutes over 24 hours) will be identified if the individual was on campus within the last 14 days. An investigation is completed to determine if contact was infectious.

A person with Whitman access was confirmed positive for COVID-19. This person is now in isolation for 10 days in accordance with our campus and CDC guidelines. Though the likelihood of transmission is low due to our contact tracing efforts, we are notifying the campus community that in the past 24 hours, a person with Whitman access was confirmed positive for COVID-19. This person is now in isolation for 10 days in accordance with our campus and CDC guidelines.

Who Works Here: Athletics Events and Facilities

Whitman Athletics has bolstered its facilities and events personnel, elevating Stephen Gall to director of facilities and events and hiring Kahili Helm as assistant events coordinator. Helm was hired in mid-July and will work closely, with Gall on the staffing and running of events. Helm graduated from Whitman with a degree in business and 15 credits in event management. Helm, who has worked with Gall in other roles in the past, said the new role is “a huge degree of responsibility.”

Cascadia Cares: Whitman’s Employee Assistance Program Offers Eldercare Services Assistance

Eldercare Services Assistance is available to provide assistance in finding solutions to the needs of older adults and the family members caring for them such as housing, alternative living, home health, community services, legal concerns and medical needs. They can help families navigate through the often confusing maze of services associated with aging, sudden chronic illness or disability.

Contact with Cascade Centers by phone (800-433-2320), text (503-850-7721) or email.

Eldercare Services Assistance

Who’s hosting the next lunch and learn? Head over to the Campus Events Calendar to learn more.

Exemption Students and Employees

Exemption students and employees who acquire COVID-19 after testing negative for the 15th consecutive day may return to campus upon receiving a negative result of a follow-up PCR test.

COVID-19 Dashboard

Positive COVID-19 cases in our campus community are noted in Whitman Today and on the dashboard.

Submit events and announcements to Whitman Today Today.

COVID-19 Case on Campus

Cascadia Cares: Whitman’s Employee Assistance Program Offers Eldercare Services Assistance

First Years: Sign Up for Career Coaching Starts This Month

Who Works Here: Athletics Events and Facilities

Cascadia Cares: Whitman’s Employee Assistance Program Offers Eldercare Services Assistance

Eldercare Services Assistance

Who’s hosting the next lunch and learn? Head over to the Campus Events Calendar to learn more.

Exemption Students and Employees

Exemption students and employees who acquire COVID-19 after testing negative for the 15th consecutive day may return to campus upon receiving a negative result of a follow-up PCR test.

COVID-19 Dashboard

Positive COVID-19 cases in our campus community are noted in Whitman Today and on the dashboard.