Whitman College Policy on Non-Discrimination/Non-Harassment

Whitman College is committed to providing a learning and working environment characterized by mutual respect and fair treatment among all its constituents. An essential component of this environment is a strong ethic and practice of equality, acceptance, and nondiscriminatory interactions. Whitman College does not tolerate harassment or discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex (including pregnancy and parenting status), gender, gender identity or manifestation, sexual orientation, religion, age, marital status, national origin, disability, veteran's status, or any other basis prohibited by Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and applicable local, state, or federal laws.

Furthermore, Whitman College strives to provide a safe environment in which students and employees can pursue their education and/or employment free from the detrimental effects of sexual misconduct, which includes, but is not limited to, sexual harassment, domestic violence, intimate partner violence, stalking, sexual assault, and other forms of non-consensual sexual behavior. Any concerns or inquiries may be directed to the Title IX Administrator; Dean of Students Office, 325 Memorial, 345 Boyer Ave, Walla Walla, WA 99362; (509) 527-5158; dunnjl@whitman.edu; or, to the Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, 915 Second Ave Room 3310, Seattle, WA 98174; (206) 607-1600.

When the College receives a grievance or notice alleging prohibited conduct by a member of the Whitman College community, or conduct by or directed toward third parties, who are not themselves employees or students of Whitman College, occurring either on or away from campus, it will take decisive action, including a thorough investigation. The College will respond with whatever measures it deems appropriate to address the incident, prevent its recurrence, and preserve the safety and well-being of its students, employees, and third parties associated with the College.

The College will act to resolve such complaints in a prompt, fair, and effective manner. In cases where a third party is found to be responsible for the prohibited conduct, disciplinary action may include the termination of the business relationship and further service by that third party. The College will fully cooperate with law enforcement in connection with related investigations and legal proceedings.

Further information regarding this policy may be obtained through the Director of Human Resources (Dennis Hopwood; 104 Mem (509) 527-5970; hopwoodt@whitman.edu).
