Description (from the College Catalog):

The CP Requirement includes courses that focus primarily on underrepresented cultural perspectives and that foster a greater understanding of the diversity or interconnectedness of cultures. Such courses must offer in-depth coverage of one or more of the following:

- 1) cultural pluralism;
- 2) power disparities among social groups;
- 3) methodological or theoretical approaches used in the interpretation of cultural difference;
- 4) marginality within categories such as gender, age, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, or class;
- 5) and/or perspectives of non-dominant groups.

Please explain below how this course meets the CPR criteria (suggested 250-word limit).
