Informal resolution requires its own notice to the parties and must include:

- Any consequences of participation in informal process, including records that may be maintained or could be shared

Q&A ON THE TITLE IX REGULATIONS ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT (JULY 20, 2021)

Question 58: May a school offer an informal resolution process, including restorative justice or mediation, as a way to resolve a sexual harassment complaint?

Answer 58: Yes. The 2020 amendments state that a school is not required to offer an informal resolution process but may facilitate an informal resolution process at any time prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility, subject to certain conditions.¹⁹² A school is not permitted to offer or facilitate an informal resolution process to resolve allegations that an employee sexually harassed a student.

The 2020 amendments explain that they leave the term “informal process” undefined to allow a school the discretion to adopt whatever process best serves the needs of its community.¹⁹⁴ The amendments do not require that the parties interact directly with each other as part of an informal resolution process; mediations are often conducted with the parties in separate rooms and the mediator conversing with each party separately. The parties’ participation in mediation or restorative justice, if offered, should remain a decision for each individual party to make in a particular case, and neither party should be pressured to participate in the process. Schools may exercise discretion to make fact-specific determinations about whether to offer informal resolution in response to a complaint. The Department will not require the parties to attempt mediation in its enforcement of Title IX.

Question 59: If a school chooses to offer an informal resolution process, are there any requirements under Title IX?

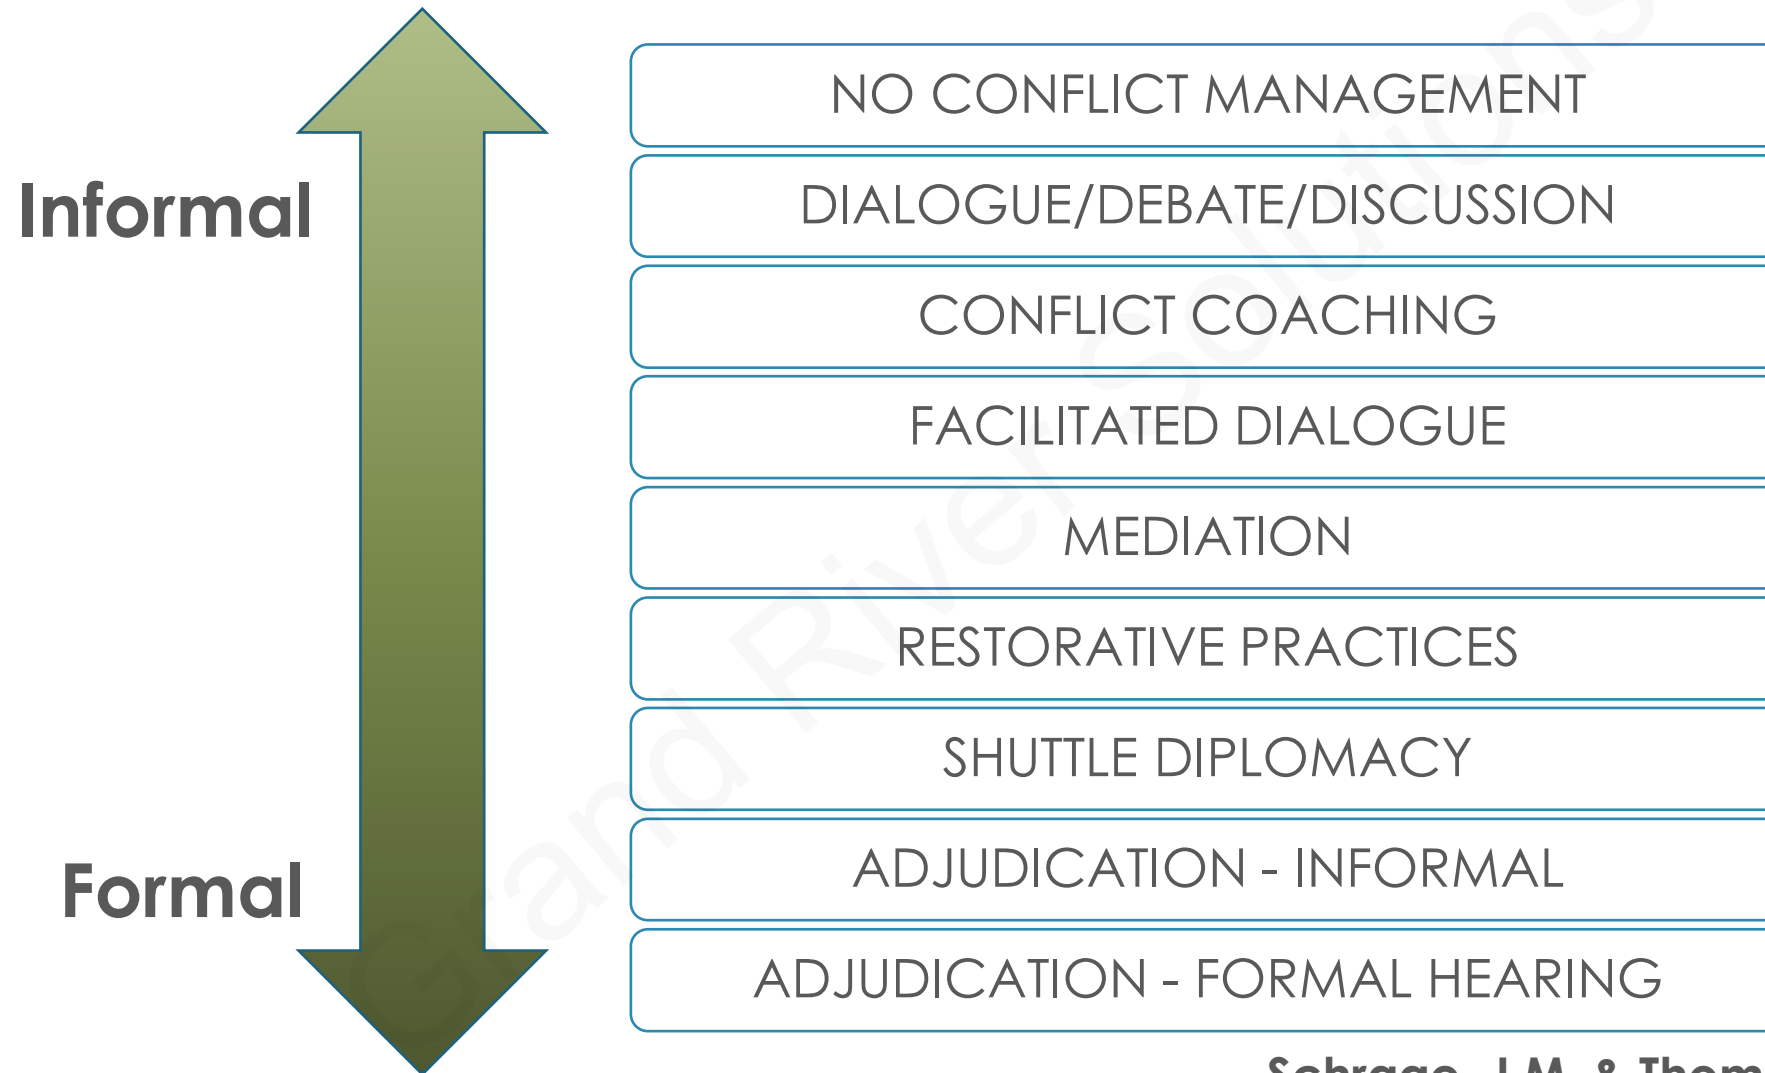

Answer 59: Yes. If a school chooses to offer an informal process, the 2020 amendments require that the school obtains the complainant's and the respondent's voluntary, written consent before using any kind of "informal resolution" process, such as mediation or restorative justice. With the parties' consent, schools have the freedom to allow the parties to choose an informal resolution mechanism that best suits their needs. If those needs change, however, the 2020 amendments also make clear that either party may withdraw from the informal resolution process and resume the formal grievance process at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution.

A school's discretion to offer an informal resolution process is also limited by the school's obligation to ensure that all persons who facilitate informal resolutions are free from conflicts of interest and bias and are trained to serve impartially without prejudging the facts at issue. For example, schools that choose to offer restorative justice as a means of an informal resolution should ensure that the restorative justice facilitators are well-trained in effective processes. A school may use trauma-informed techniques during the informal resolution process.

WHAT CAN INFORMAL RESOLUTION LOOK LIKE?

TYPES OF CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Schrage, J.M. & Thomas, M.C (2008)

WHAT WORKS BEST?

- Mediation
- Shuttle Diplomacy
- Restorative Practices
- Informal Adjudication

MEDIATION

“Mediation is a process in which a neutral third party (mediator) helps the parties communicate with one another in an attempt to reach an agreement that is acceptable to everyone. Mediation is a forward-looking process in that it encourages the participants to focus on their current and future needs and interests rather than focusing on fault and blame for past actions. Mediation differs from a court proceeding in that the parties maintain control of their dispute. The decision-making power in mediation lies with the parties, not with the mediator.”

-Harris County TX Dispute Resolution Center

RESTORATIVE PRACTICES

Restorative practices focus on the respondent taking accountability and repairing harm they have caused. Restorative practices are community based and provides space for all of the parties involved to come together to restore trust and build or rebuild community.

SHUTTLE DIPLOMACY

Shuttle diplomacy is a form of mediation that does not require the parties to interact directly with each other. An agreement is negotiated by a facilitator or mediator working with one party at a time to reach an agreed upon resolution.

INFORMAL ADJUDICATION

Informal adjudication is an administrative decision made in accordance with processes established by the institution. While the parties are largely responsible for suggestion outcomes and actions in other forms of informal resolution, in informal adjudication, the facilitator may lead by suggesting outcomes for the parties to consider.

IMPARTIALITY

Avoiding bias, prejudgment, and conflicts of interest

03

IMPARTIALITY: AVOIDING PREJUDGMENT AND BIAS

“The Department’s interest in ensuring impartial Title IX proceedings that avoid prejudgment of the facts at issue necessitates a broad prohibition on sex stereotypes so that decisions are made on the basis of individualized facts and not on stereotypical notions of what “men” or “women” do or do not do.” 85 Fed. Reg. 30254 (May 19, 2020).

SECTION 106.45(b)(1)(iii)

The grievance process must require that any individual designated by the recipient as Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or facilitator of informal resolution not to have a conflict of interest or bias:

- For or against complaints or respondents generally, or
- An individual complainant or respondent

SECTION 106.45(b)(1)(iii)

“Title IX Coordinator, investigator, decision maker, or facilitator of informal resolution must receive training on...how to serve impartially, including avoiding prejudice of the facts at issue, conflict of interest, and bias. This training material may not rely on sex stereotypes and must promote impartial investigations and adjudications of formal complaints of sexual harassment.”

Do not rely on cultural “rape myths”

Do not rely on cultural stereotypes about how men or women
purportedly behave

Do not rely on gender-specific research data or theories to decide or make inferences of relevance or credibility in particular cases

Recognize that anyone,
regardless of sex, gender, gender identity or sexual orientation, can be a victim or perpetrator of sexual assault or other violence

Avoid any perception of bias in favor of or against complainants or respondents generally

Employ interview and investigation approaches that demonstrate a commitment to impartiality

IMPARTIALITY

Avoiding Bias

- Department also rejected commenters' arguments that individuals should be disqualified from serving as investigators because of past personal or professional experience
- "Department encourages [schools] to apply an objective (whether a reasonable person would believe bias exists), common sense approach to evaluating whether a particular person serving in a Title IX role is biased" WHILE
- "exercising caution not to apply generalizations that might unreasonably conclude that bias exists (for example, assuming that all self-professed feminists, or self-described survivors, are biased against men, or that a male is incapable of being sensitive to women, or that prior work as a victim advocate, or as a defense attorney, renders the person biased for or against complainants or respondents"

IMPARTIALITY

Avoiding Conflicts of Interest

- Commenters argued that investigators and hearing officers employed by schools have an “inherent conflict of interest” because of their affiliation with the school, so Department should require investigations and hearings to be conducted by external contractors
- Department noted that some of those commenters argued that this resulted in bias against complainants, and some argued that this resulted in bias against respondents
- Department’s response: Department’s authority is over schools, not individual investigators and other personnel, so Department will focus on holding school’s responsible for impartial end result of process, without labeling certain administrative relationships as per se involving conflicts of interest

GETTING STARTED

Initial Steps & Considerations

04

INITIAL STEPS

- Discussion of Goals
- Draft Process
- Managing Staffing & Training
- Develop Templates
- Recordkeeping
- Assessment and Evaluation

GOALS

GOALS FOR INFORMATION RESOLUTION PROCESSES

- ✓ Neutral/Impartial Process
- ✓ Trauma Informed
- ✓ Meets the Needs of the Parties
- ✓ Clear and Transparent
- ✓ Empowerment of Parties
- ✓ Resolution Focused

REMINDERS ABOUT INFORMAL RESOLUTIONS

- As a best practice, any information shared or gained during the informal resolution process should not be used against either party should the matter return to the formal process.
- Informal resolutions typically do not result in a formal finding of violation.
- Any agreed upon outcomes are typically not considered sanctions.
- The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for determining when an informal resolution is appropriate.
- An agreement between the parties ends the matter.
- Informal resolution agreements are not able to be appealed.

DRAFTING PROCESS

- Process should be clear and transparent
- Provides for appropriate due process under the regulations
- Provides flexibility to choose the method of resolution that best suits the parties and the situation at hand
- Complements existing formal grievance process
- Includes details about record keeping and confidentiality

POLICY STATEMENT EXAMPLES

The Department of Education provides a number of example policy statements on Page 53 and 54 of its July 20, 2021 Q&A on the Title IX Regulations on Sexual Harassment:

<https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/202107-qa-titleix.pdf>

STAFFING CONSIDERATIONS

- Informal Resolution facilitators need to be trained
 - In some states, mediators need to be trained but do not need to be certified.
 - In others, mediators need to be certified.
- Facilitators cannot be the investigator or decision maker
- Confidentiality is key
- Internal vs. External

CONSIDERING OUTCOMES

TEMPLATES

- Informal Resolution specific templates should include:
 - Notice of Informal Resolution
 - Informal Resolution Agreement
- Formal Resolution process templates should also be include information on Informal Resolution options, including:
 - Notice of Allegations
 - Notice of Investigation
 - Notice of Hearing

ASSESSMENT

Consider assessing:

- Number of cases that enter IR process
- Number of cases that exit IR process
- Kinds of agreed upon outcomes
- Type of process used (mediation, shuttle negotiation, etc.)
- Overall party satisfaction with resolution process
- Compliance with resolution agreements

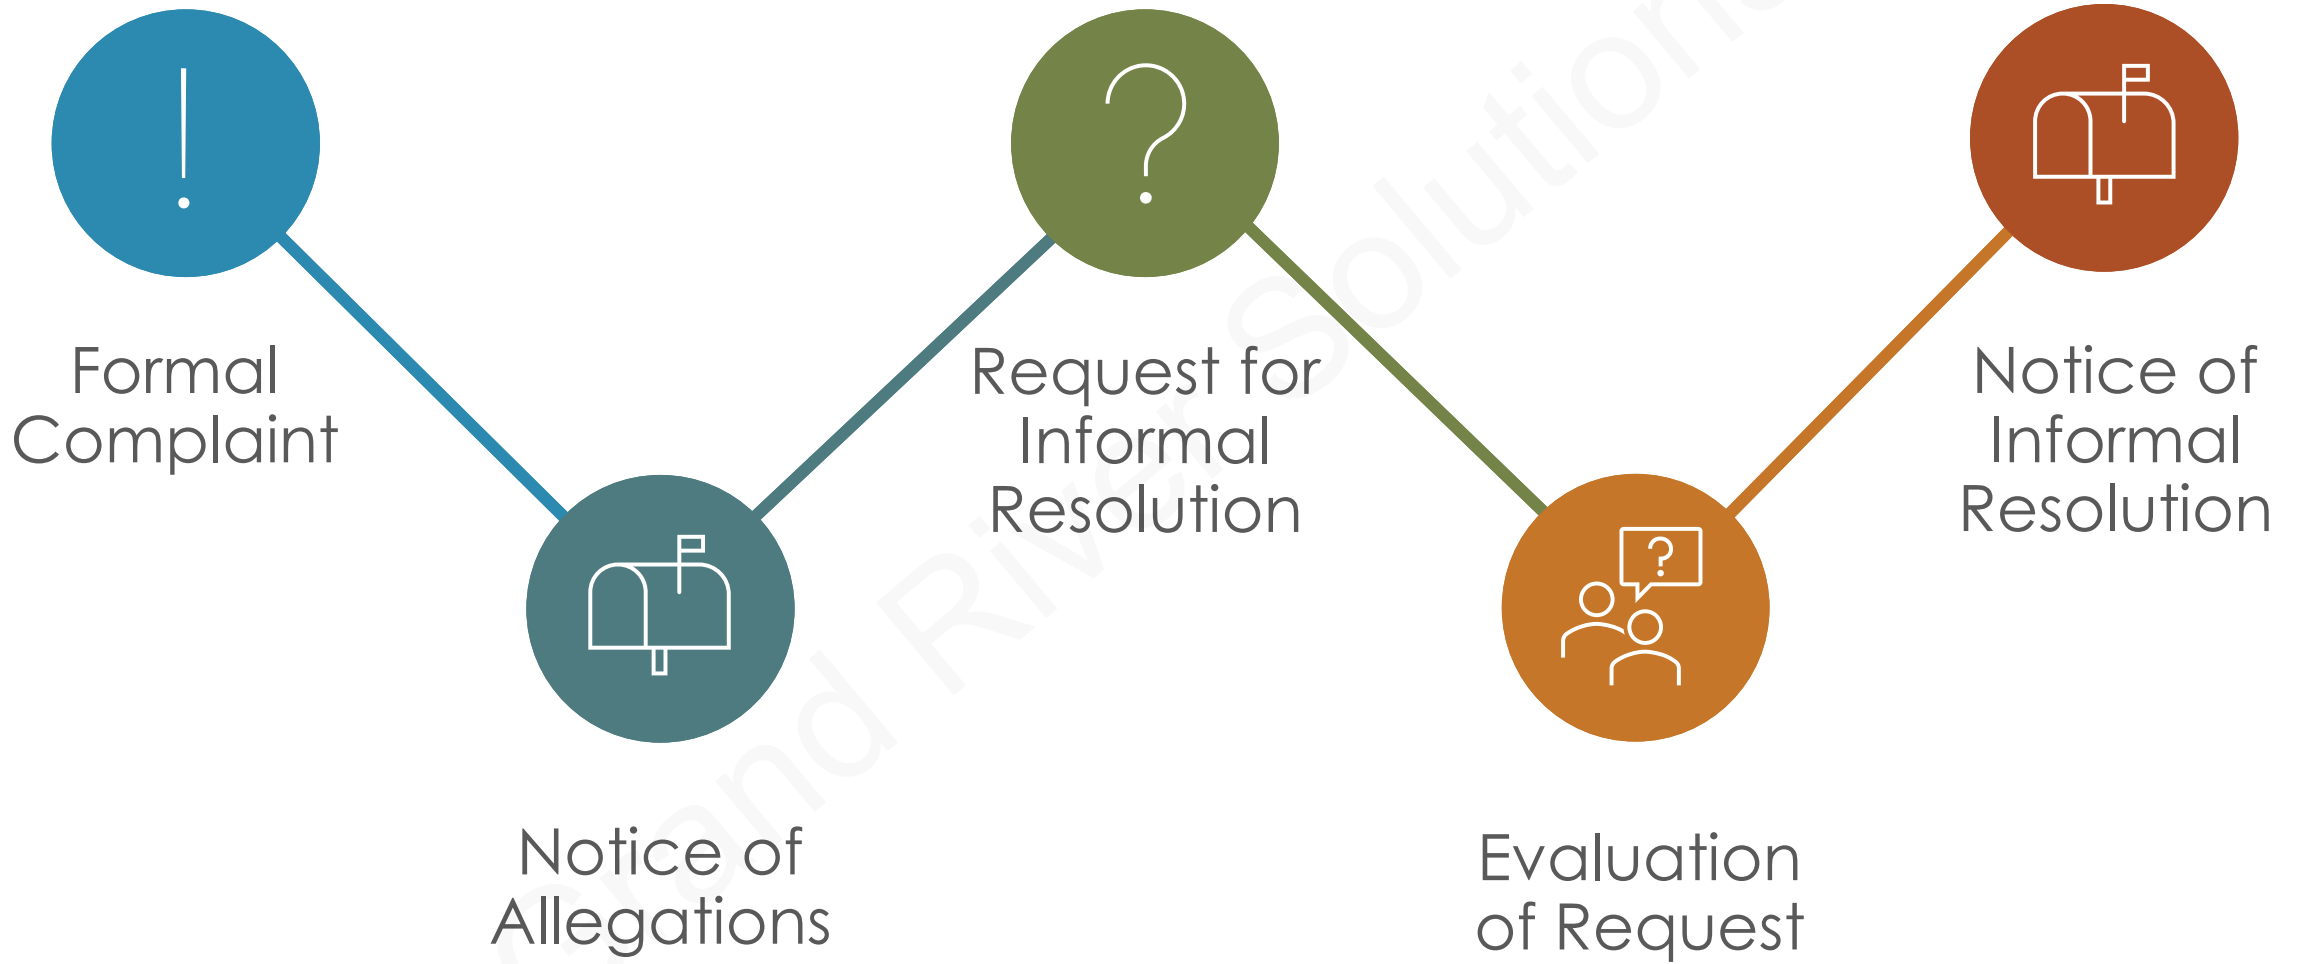

CONDUCTING THE INFORMAL RESOLUTION

Initial Steps & Requirements

05

INITIAL STEPS

EVALUATING IR REQUESTS

Is an Informal Resolution permitted?

- Reminder: If the respondent is an employee and the complainant is a student, IR is not permitted by the Final Rule

Is an Informal Resolution appropriate?

- Considerations:
 - The emotional state of the parties
 - Do the parties hold equal power?
 - Are both parties willing to engage meaningfully in the process?

PROCESS PARTICIPANTS

THE PARTICIPANTS: THE PARTIES

Complainant

An individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Respondent

An individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

THE PARTICIPANTS: ADVISORS

- Can be anyone, including a lawyer, a parent, a friend, and a witness
- No particular training or experience required (institution appointed advisors should be trained)
- Can accompany their advisees at all meetings and interviews
- Advisors should help the Parties prepare for each meeting and are expected to advise ethically, with integrity, and in good faith
- May not speak on behalf of their advisee or otherwise participate, except that the advisor will conduct cross examination at a hearing
- Advisors are expected to advise their advisees without disrupting proceedings

THE PARTICIPANTS: ADVISORS

An Advisor who oversteps their role as defined by the policy should be warned once. If the Advisor continues to disrupt or otherwise fails to respect the limits of the Advisor role, the meeting may be ended, or other appropriate measures implemented. Subsequently, the Title IX Coordinator has the ability determine how to address the Advisor's non-compliance and future role.

THE PARTICIPANTS: THE FACILITATOR

- Manages logistics of process
- Communicates with parties
- Coordinates with and updates Title IX Coordinator
- Attempts to facilitate an agreed resolution
- Documents process and decisions

DOES THE
FACILITATOR NEED
ACCESS TO THE CASE FILE?

REACHING A RESOLUTION

Options & Considerations

06

PREPARING FOR RESOLUTION

Individual meetings with each party and their advisor to discuss:

- Process
- Timeline
- Party's goals in the process
- Available types of resolution and comfort level with each
- Expectations of all participants
- Setting for resolution
 - In person
 - Video conference
 - Asynchronous

PARTY GOALS

- Why is understanding these goals important?
- What are some approaches to determining the goals each party has?

UNDERSTANDING PARTY GOALS

- Why did they decide to participate in an informal resolution process?
- In an ideal world, what is their desired outcome?
- What are their non-negotiables?
- Where are they willing to compromise?
- What level of interaction with the other party do they want?
- What do they need to feel comfortable with the resolution?

REMINDER:

Any information shared or gained during the informal resolution process typically may not be used against either party should the matter return to the formal process.

CONFLICT STYLES

The key difference between conflict styles is the priority each individual places on agenda vs. relationship.

Agenda: Each party has their own individual agenda or goals going into a conflict, which includes how much they are willing to push for what they want.

Relationship: Each party has their own personal perception of the current state of the relationship with the other party and their desired future relationship, if any.

CHOOSING A RESOLUTION FORMAT

- | Mediation
- | Shuttle Diplomacy
- | Restorative Practices
- | Adjudication Informal

POSSIBLE SETTINGS

In Person:

Process is conducted in person with all parties present, though not necessarily in the same room.

Teleconference:

Process is conducted remotely; parties may or may not meet with each other

Asynchronous:

Facilitator meets with each part individually, at different times.

SETTING CONSIDERATIONS

- Parties' desire for interaction
- Safety
- Physical location of the parties
- Physical environment if in person
- Timeline required by process
- Timeline desired by the parties

EXPECTATIONS

Setting expectations for behavior during the IR process is crucial for a smooth, efficient process.

Your institution's hearing rules of decorum are a good place to start.

Treat everyone with respect.

Speak only at approved times in process.

Redisclosure of materials is prohibited.

Abusive conduct is prohibited.

Role of advisor is limited & must not disrupt the process.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION - QUINN

“Casey and I have been friends for a few weeks. On Friday night, we were hanging out alone in my room, watching a movie. We started to make out, and I was ok with that. After making out for a while, Casey started touching me down there. Then Casey tried to have sex with me. Casey knew that I didn’t want to have sex but kept trying anyway. Casey was being really coercive, and so I just went along with it.”

PRACTICAL APPLICATION - BARRI

“When I got to the party, I was already lit. I kept letting Marc get me drinks anyway. At some point, I just kinda don’t remember anything. And then I woke up in Marc’s bed and it was morning. I had all my clothes on, but I know someone had sex with me. I could feel it. I just wanted to go, so I did. Before I left Marc woke up and tried to talk to me but I wasn’t hearing it. He looked guilty and I could tell he felt bad.”

PRACTICAL APPLICATION - COLIN

“Pat and I have been together for about a month and have been intimate for the last two weeks. We went out with my friends on Friday night and Pat got really drunk. At some point we ran into my ex and Pat was really jealous, so we left. When we got back to my place, I thought things were fine. We started hooking up and all of a sudden Pat's mood changed. Pat got really aggressive and choked me. He was so angry and I was so scared.”
